

Services

Consulting

---

Trained technician are available for feasibility advices about an irrigation project to individuate the best system according crops, soil and farm needs.

Designing

---

Carried out all the necessary field survey, it is elaborated a design by computer, optimising the diameters of the pipes according with flow and pressure available and moreover the precipitation rate uniformity, prospecting, if necessary, several solutions with the goal to find, according with the customer, the most close to the farm needs.

Warehouses

---

Large warehouses are able to furnish all components needed for an irrigation system of every kind and moreover spare parts for sprinklers pumps and valves. This is a valuable service particularly during the irrigation season.

Machines and particular equipments can be supplied in reasonable time, if not ready in the warehouse.

Installations

---

After a field tracing according with the design, it begin the installation "key on hand" that means completely finished and tested system by Irrigazione Veneta or with partial aid of the manpower belonging to the farm or with the supply of the material and, in the case, with technical assistance.